Lewis Fails In Talk Bid

Separate Negotiations Out: Owners

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A bold bid by John L. Lewis to drive a wedge between coal mine owners resisting his demands failed today.

The Indiana Coal Operators Association rejected Lewis' invitation for a one-state-only negotiated settlement of the strike in Indiana.

"The issues involved are national in character and cannot be reconciled to district negotiations," Harvey Cartwright, secretary of the association, declared at Terre Haute.

Fuel Supplies Threatened
The 45-day-old strike has kept 378,000 soft coal miners from the pits and has begun to threaten fuel supplies of utilities and other vital services.

The idea of separate Indiana coal peace talks was first broached by Gov. Henry Schrieffer of Indiana. Lewis quickly accepted. Then Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois appealed for a prompt settlement, saying the health of Illinois citizens was being "imperiled" for lack of coal.

The White House, however, was continuing to say daily that President Truman has no immediate plans for invoking the Taft-Hartley strike ending court injunction powers over the idle coal mines.

In addition to Lewis failing to obtain separate negotiations with Indiana operators, his miners' union talks with southern coal producers at Bluefield, W. Va., came to a sudden end when the southern producers walked out.

Lewis has been absent from the meetings with the southern group and today, for the second straight day, even Lewis' lieutenant, John Owens, the union's secretary-treasurer, stayed away. Southern operators said there was no use continuing talks on that basis.

The miners union chief already had put out a bid for separate talks with Illinois coal producers by scheduling a union strategy meeting for Chicago Monday.

Lewis evidently had been seeking to split the soft coal industry's solid front just as CIO President Philip Murray had done in steel by winning a settlement Monday night with Bethlehem Steel Corp.

The Illinois-Indiana coal owners, said to have relatively low operating costs due to extensive mechanization, had been reported anxious for a strike settlement. They have made peace-setting deals with Lewis before.

Wallgren Takes Office On Federal Power Commission

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Mon C. Wallgren took office today as a member of the Federal Power commission.

Wallgren, a former governor of Washington and a former representative and senator, was sworn in by Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson.

He succeeds Leland Olds, whose reappointment was rejected by the senate.

Wallgren's term will end in June, 1954.

Hague Making Last Stand In Jersey

Newark, N.J., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Frank "I am the law" Hague is making what could be his last political stand.

Outcome of New Jersey's gubernatorial election next Tuesday will decide whether the 73-year-old one-time Democratic boss is on the road back or has fallen farther by the wayside.

The election pits Democrat Elmer H. Wene, former congressman and owner of one of the world's largest chick hatcheries, against the GOP incumbent, Alfred E. Driscoll, a potential 1952 presidential nominee.

Most neutral observers see a close fight. And, indications are that the vote in Hague's home bailiwick will be the key to the election.

Although no longer the all-powerful leader of yesterday, Hague still dominates the state Democratic organization. He is directing the campaign to recapture the governorship from the Republicans who have held it for six years.

RULE KNIFE SLAYING JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE
Chicago, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A coroner's jury held today that the bread knife slaying of a peanut vendor by his brother-in-law was justifiable homicide.

Police are holding the brother-in-law, Charles Reed, 38, on a murder charge pending a hearing in felony court tomorrow.

The peanut vendor, Harry Gonchar, 41, was slain Monday night in the Reed home during an argument over a $233 rent and laundry bill.

Search Potomac River For Bodies Of Crash Victims

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Working in muddy water 35 feet deep, navy divers later today pulled from the Potomac river the forepart of the giant passenger plane which yesterday carried 55 persons to death in the world's worst airplane crash.

The wreckage of the cockpit and fuselage was upside down, buried in the mud. The tail lay on the river bank, 100 yards away.

In mud up to their hips, the divers worked on into the night in an attempt to find the eight missing bodies. In some places it was so sticky the divers themselves had to be pried from the ooze.

While they worked, congressmen called for a thorough study of a policy which permits military and commercial planes to use the same airport.

The Eastern Air Lines DC-4, on its way from Boston to New Orleans, and a Bolivian P-38 fighter plane collided and then crashed after they had tried to land simultaneously at Washington's national airport.

One congressman, Rep. Thomas J. Lane (D-Mass.), called the wreck "mass murder." A colleague of Lane's, Rep. George Bates (R-Mass.), was among those killed.

State Fish Group Examine Fishing In Lake Michigan
Waukegan, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Members of a state commission went out in a fishing boat today and saw firsthand how commercial trout fishing has fallen off.

Gill nets which had been in the water since Saturday were hauled in. The catch amounted to six trout, weighing a total of 25 pounds.

Before the trout fishing declined, the same nets would have trapped 2,000 pounds of fish.

Mathon Kyritsis, vice chairman of the Illinois Lake Michigan fish protection commission and president of the Illinois Fishermen's association, attributed the falling off in fishing to pollution of lake water, the preying on trout by sea lampreys and ruination of trout spawning grounds.

Accompanying the eight members of the commission appointed recently by Governor Adlai Stevenson were representatives of the Izaak Walton league, the state conservation department and the University of Illinois Biology department.

Acheson Calls On U. S. To Reverse Its Trade Policy
New York, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson called on the nation tonight to reverse its 30-year-old foreign trade policy and become an "import-minded" country, in order to close a $6,000,000,000 trade gap.

In a speech prepared for the convention of the national foreign trade council, Acheson proclaimed a campaign to reduce tariffs, simplify customs, procedures, "modernize" other laws and otherwise expand the opportunities for foreign producers to sell their goods in this country.

The United States, he said, must get away from the system under which, for years, it has financed the shipment of huge amounts of its products abroad through gifts or large government loans. Such measures as the European recovery program, he said, have served major national objectives but "have not been to our advantage as consumers."

Cincinnati Fire Kills 6 Injures 8
Cincinnati, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The most tragic Cincinnati fire in five years brought death today to six persons and injury to eight others.

Flames raged through a three-story apartment building. Only five residents escaped unharmed.

The dead included three men, two women and a boy about eight years old.

One of the dead women—Mrs. Alice Alexander Orme, 29, of Lawton, Okla., whose son also perished—and Mrs. May Malone, 42, who was injured, were heroines of the tragedy.

Mrs. Orme pushed one man out of a window and probably saved his life. She and her son, James Alexander, were found dead near the window.

GRANITE CITY GETS 300 LOW-RENT HOUSES
Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Public Housing administration assigned 300 low-rent housing units today to Granite City, Ill.

A local housing authority plans to build 150 in each of the next two years. It asked for a $15,000 loan to pay for planning. The loan is subject to approval by President Truman.

Denfeld Offered Command Of Atlantic Naval Forces
Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Secretary of the Navy Matthews today offered a major post as commander of Eastern Atlantic-Mediterranean naval forces to Admiral Louis Denfeld, ousted as chief of naval operations in the row over national defense.

Denfeld did not immediately disclose whether he will accept the job, which would mark a step down after reaching the top in his 40-year navy career.

Matthews made the announcement two hours before Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, flashing a new fourth star, formally took over as the youngest chief of naval operations in American history. Sherman, just turned 53, succeeds Denfeld.

The Navy's new No. 1 man, was sworn in by Secretary Matthews in a brief ceremony at the Pentagon. Denfeld grinned, stuck out his hand, and wished his successor "Good Luck."

Matthews said Conolly has been overseas for three years and is "long overdue for a change."

Associates of Denfeld have predicted he will retire, perhaps taking up a high-paying job in private industry, but there has been no word from Denfeld himself.

As Sherman began his new regime, Pentagon speculation centered on two major possibilities:

1. That more Navy heads may roll and some stars may fall in the drive to wipe out Navy bitterness over developments in the armed forces controversy.

2. That some Washington admirals may be shipped out to sea.

CIO Ousts Left Wing U. E. F. W.

Executive Board Asks 9 Others Be Expelled Also
Cleveland, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Two left wing unions were kicked out at the CIO convention today and the union's executive board was given sweeping "instructions" to oust nine or ten others.

The first to be expelled since the CIO came into being 14 years ago were the United Electrical Workers—the CIO's third largest—and the Farm Equipment Workers.

Shortly after they were given the boot for "sabotaging" CIO policies and programs, the convention pushed through a special resolution aimed at covering left wing affiliates.

'Protect CIO'
The resolution "instructed" the CIO's 51-man executive board "immediately to exercise its powers to take appropriate action to protect the CIO" from persons following the line of "the communist party, any fascist organization or other totalitarian movement."

Whether all the nine or 10 left wing unions still in the CIO will be expelled still was not disclosed, however. Some observers believe a few of them might be given another chance to get back into the good graces of the powerful right wing majority.

Only about 50 of the convention's 415 delegates rose in opposition when resolutions to expel the two unions were put to standing votes.

No Debating
There was not even any debate on the Farm Equipment Workers, who had defied a year-old order to merge with the right wing United Auto Workers.

A right wing affiliate immediately was chartered to take the place of the ousted Electrical Workers union.

In an effort to capture the bulk of the U. E. W.'s 375,000 members, the executive board chartered the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers at a special meeting between convention sessions.

The new right wing affiliate will hold an organizational convention in Philadelphia (Broadwood hotel) starting Nov. 28. James B. Carey will head up the group, but will retain his post as CIO secretary-treasurer.

The UE expulsion is expected to touch off a bitter jurisdictional fight. Only the right wing auto workers and the steelworkers have larger memberships than the UE.

Unknown Friends Harvest Crippled Man's Corn Crop
Virgil, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Phillip Altpeter, 38-year-old farmer crippled by a bank robber's bullet, wants to thank some neighbors for an unexpected helping hand. But he just doesn't know who to thank.

The neighbors drove into his fields without warning, husked and picked 24 acres of corn and went off without a word.

Altpeter was shot in the back as he stood by the door of the Virgil State bank when it was robbed last Jan. 14. He was hospitalized for several months and doctors said they thought he'll ever be able to work again. A nephew planted and tended the corn harvested by the unknown neighbors Monday.

Altpeter's assistant, John Minster, 18, of Chicago, was captured with a companion, Arthur Otowski, 20, also of Chicago, at Crystal Lake a few hours after the robbery. Both are serving prison terms.

Reward Churchill For His Memoirs
London, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Winston Churchill said today an author ought to get an income tax allowance for wear and tear of the mind.

He spoke at a National Book exhibit where he received the London Sunday Times £1,000 (£2,800) prize and gold medal for the outstanding contribution to English literature in the year ended last June.

Churchill won the award for the first two volumes of his war memoirs—"The Gathering Storm" and "Their Finest Hour."

He said jokingly today that the income tax people should let authors claim "a substantial sum for the depreciation of mental machinery."

WHITESIDE COUNTY'S OLDEST RESIDENT DIES
Lyndon, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Carl W. Szelow, 98, Whiteside county's oldest resident, died today.

Born Feb. 15, at Maltow, Germany, he came to this country in 1878 and settled near Lyndon. Later he farmed near Morrisou. He retired in 1913.

Surviving are four daughters, 10 grandchildren, 17 great grandchildren, and four great great grandchildren.

The funeral will be at Morrison Saturday, followed by burial here.

REFUGEES FLEE EAST
Berlin, Nov. 2.—(AP)—An average of 400 refugees, fleeing "oppression" in eastern Europe, arrive weekly in western Berlin. U. S. Welfare authorities disclosed today.

Accuse China Reds Of Suppressing Facts In Arrests

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The state department accused Chinese communist authorities today of suppressing the real facts behind the arrest of American Consul General Angus Ward at Mukden 10 days ago.

Two new dispatches from the Mukden consulate informed the department that on Monday Ward was still imprisoned, along with four members of his staff. The department believed they were still being held today.

Consulate officials had not been permitted to see them, according to the official dispatches, but had supplied food, heavy clothing and bedding for them, presumably in response to their requests relayed to Vice Consul William N. Stokes by the communists.

Ward, with two American citizens and two Europeans who worked for him, was seized by the communists Oct. 24 and accused of having "brutally beaten" a Chinese employee of the consulate. The communist press and radio have given long accounts of the alleged beating.

In the dispatches received today, one of which was sent Oct. 27 and the other Oct. 31, Vice Consul Stokes informed the state department that the "full details leading up to the alleged incident" had been transmitted to Washington.

Knetzer Held In Contempt For Not Paying Creditors
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Robert L. Knetzer, bankrupt Edwardsville car dealer, today was ordered to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court for failing to turn over $250,000 to creditors.

Federal Judge Charles G. Briggie signed an order summoning the one-time fabulous automobile dealer to a hearing here Nov. 15. The order was requested by Attorney G. William Horsley of Springfield in behalf of the trustee handling Knetzer's bankrupt estate.

The contempt citation grew out of a finding by Judge Briggie last July that Knetzer has in his possession or under his control $250,000 which should go to help pay off creditors who made deposits but never received cars or refunds.

Knetzer had been given until Nov. 1 to turn up with the money. In his bankruptcy petition, he listed assets of $181,000 and debts totaling $2,400,000 owed to more than 600 creditors.

Stevenson Says He Hasn't Heard That Hershey Will Quit
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Governor Stevenson said today published reports that Harry B. Hershey of Taylorville is quitting Jan. 1 as state insurance director is "news to me."

Stevenson said that Hershey took the job "at my personal and earnest request" but that the director didn't consider it permanent.

"As to any time for a replacement, I don't care to comment," the governor added.

Stevenson said he has not decided on a successor to Charles J. Fleck of Chicago as chairman of the Illinois Liquor commission but that Chalmers C. Taylor of Bloomington, a commission member, is being considered.

The governor also told reporters he still doesn't see any need for a special session of the legislature. He made the comment in connection with a special session request by the Illinois Welfare association to act on more liberal public aid allowances.

BRIDGE SPLITS PAIR
Honolulu, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Circuit Judge John A. Mathewman yesterday ruled that bridge five nights a week is grounds for divorce.

Laura McConnell testified that when her husband, Walter G. McConnell of New York, wasn't playing he "talked nothing but bridge."

The judge granted the divorce on ground of cruel treatment.

Blackmer Pays $20,000 In Fines For Tax Evasion
Denver, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Henry M. Blackmer, bent-shouldered oil millionaire, paid $20,000 in fines today to close his income tax evasion accounts with the U. S. government.

He was spared a jail sentence because of fading health. He is 80 years old.

Justice Orie L. Phillips of the U. S. circuit court of appeals pronounced the sentence in federal district court today.

The $20,000 penalty seemed small beside the millions Blackmer had gathered together in his vast business dealings and alongside the $3,670,000 he has paid already in back taxes and penalties.

Before announcing the fines, Justice Phillips said he was acceding to federal District Attorney Max Bulkeley's motion for dismissal of bench and gazed intently at him through thick-lensed, black-rimmed glasses.

When Justice Phillips was slighted, the wealthy defendant made a slight bow, but he said nothing and his face remained without expression.

He was called a "child of the gods" when he was a financial czar and a lavish spender here more than a quarter century ago. Today he was just a resigned-looking old man in an Oxford gray suit, somewhat rumpled.

POLICE SELL BURGLAR TOOLS AT AUCTION
St. Louis, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The first item offered at the annual police department auction today was a set of crowbars recovered at the scene of a burglary.

About 350 prospective bidders sat in stony silence.

Finally the crowd was assured the successful bidder would not become the subject of a police investigation. The tools then sold for $1.25.

United States Of Indonesia Is Set Up In East Indies
The Hague, The Netherlands, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A United States of Indonesia was carved out of the wealthy East Indies today, giving promise of peace and independence to millions of Asiatics governed by the Dutch since 1602.

Representatives of The Netherlands and of 70,000,000 Indonesians, meeting in Historic Knights hall, scratched their signatures to agreements which extend equal partnership to the new state in a tight union with the Dutch. Queen Juliana and her successors will stand as the symbol of union.

The Dutch agreed "unconditionally and irrevocably" to transfer complete sovereignty to the young Republic not later than Dec. 30, provided the Dutch and Indonesian parliaments approve. Both are expected to do so, but the vote may be close.

They must vote on the decisions within six weeks.

Dutch Prime Minister Dr. Willem Drees, who was one of the signers, said he confident of parliamentary ratification by the necessary two-thirds vote. He promised Dutch aid to the new state.

Monmouth Doctor Is Outstanding 1949 GP In State
Monmouth, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—An 84 year old physician, still in active practice at Mt. Vernon, today was named Illinois' outstanding general practitioner for 1949.

Announcement of the award to Dr. Andy Hall, son of a Mexican war veteran, was made by Dr. Walter Stevenson of Quincy, president of the Illinois State Medical Society, at the society's headquarters here.

Dr. Hall, widely known physician and former director of the State Public Health department four years, will become Illinois' candidate for designation as the nation's outstanding general practitioner. This award will be made at the interim meeting of the house of delegates of the American Medical Association in Washington, Dec. 6-9.

With three major interruptions, Dr. Hall has been practicing at Mt. Vernon since his graduation from Northwestern University Medical school in 1890.

Midwest Powdered By Snow Flurries
By the Associated Press
Snow flurries powdered parts of the Midwest Wednesday but the Gulf States got some relief from the cold.

Light snow flurries visited Northern Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan.

The Mercury mounted in the Gulf States after touching a low of 31 at Rome, Ga., 36 at Mobile, Ala., 42 at Tallahassee, Fla., and 46 at Jacksonville, Fla.

Stevenson Will Discuss Gambling With Elliott Soon
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Governor Stevenson is going to discuss the "whole situation" about gambling in Illinois at a conference Thursday night with Attorney General Ivan A. Elliott.

Stevenson told reporters today the discussion will not be limited to any certain counties. He said he wants to be brought up to date on what steps Elliott has taken and to find out the extent of state cooperation with local law enforcers and citizens on gambling complaints.

Donald J. Walsh, state public safety director whose supervision includes state police, will attend the conference at the executive mansion.

The meeting was prompted by a complaint from state's attorney Arthur D. Young of Fulton county. He said legitimate business in Fulton county was being hurt by gambling in adjoining Mason and Tazewell counties.

TAX COLLECTIONS FOR OCTOBER ABOVE THOSE OF LAST YEAR

So far this year the tax has produced $140,928,578, a drop of $385,823 from the first 10 months of 1948.

Cigarette tax collections of $2,273,964 in October were down $121,000 compared with a year ago but liquor taxes totaling $2,302,524 were up $216,710.

SMOOTH-RIDING TRACTOR SEAT—How to take the jerks and bumps out of tractor driving has plagued engineers for years. This new tractor seat with a pair of rubber torsional springs mounted underneath was developed by U. S. Rubber to solve the problem. The springs are the cylindrical objects mounted below the arrow. As the tractor rides over rough ground, these springs—rather than the rider—twist and turn with each jolt, cushioning the shock for the operator.

What It Means: Flight Of The Arctic Tern

By Clarke Beach

Washington—Mother Nature has taken no part in the B-36 controversy, but she could say a thing or two about it if she wished. The Air Force people boast of the B-36's range—a little more than 10,000 miles. But Mother Nature for thousands of years has had a little half-pound flying machine, the Arctic Tern, which makes two 11,000-mile flights a year—not non-stop, but even so that's some flying. The bird summers in the Arctic and winters in the Antarctic.

It's seasonal migration, which is going on right now, is the longest of any bird. Arctic terns from Alaska and other western parts of North America fly directly south. But those who summer in Eastern North America make a mysterious side-trip to Europe and Africa before heading for the South Pole. You practically never find an Arctic tern on the Atlantic coast of North America south of northern Massachusetts.

One theory about this side-trip is that the Arctic tern's ancestors came from Europe. So before they take up their winter residence in the Antarctic they make a sentimental journey home. They fly east across the Atlantic towards Scotland or France, then sail south along the western coast of Europe and Africa.

People have known practically nothing about the trail of the tern until the past 20 years or so. It was known that they turned up seasonally in the Arctic and Antarctic, but the course they took was not understood until the U. S. Fish and Wildlife service began banding the birds, in cooperation with similar foreign agencies.

Numbered anklets fastened to the birds, and a record is kept of where the banding took place. About 7,846 Arctic terns have been banded. And 10 or 12 of them have been recovered at long distances, in Europe or Africa. One of the birds which had been banded in 1929 was recovered in 1946.

Arctic terns don't fly non-stop. They are water fowl, so they can snooze or feed on the ocean. From the record of one banding, it was learned that a tern took three months to fly from Labrador to Southeast Africa.

They are relatively slow, cruise at about 30 to 35 miles per hour. They seem to fly rather low. Sailors report seeing them in flocks at an altitude of about 100 feet.

They are the size of a small gull, with long wings and a long, forked tail. They are pure white underneath and pearl gray on top. Their feet and bills are red, and the top of their head is black—looks like a little derby hat.

They are great lovers. When the male is courting, he brings food to the female, presenting it to her with a playful little ceremony. While she is brooding on the eggs, he continues to feed her—and keeps up the same little courtship ceremony.

Arctic terns lay their eggs near the North Pole, on small sandy islands or in the snow on the ice pack.

Scientists can only guess at the reasons for their long migration. It might be a matter of food supply. Or daylight saving. Or a combination of both. At any rate, moving from pole to pole, where they get almost 24 hours of daylight in mid-summer and mid-winter, they probably see more of the sun than any other creature.

Injured Farmer's Work Finished By Many Neighbors

Carrollton—Fifty-four farmers who are neighbors of Ward Hobson went to his farm Monday morning, bringing with them ten corn pickers, three elevators and trucks, tractors and wagons needed to service the corn pickers, and completed the husking of Hobson's 65 acres of corn by noon. The group shucked 3500 bushels of corn in the half day and assembled at noon at the Hobson home, where wives of the workers and ladies of the Centerville Women's club had prepared a luncheon.

The work on the Hobson farm was done without the knowledge of Hobson, who is a patient in the Josephine Heitkamp hospital in St. Louis, recovering from an arm injury which occurred a few weeks ago when his arm became caught in a picker. It was thought for a time that amputation would be necessary.

Hobson's mother, Mrs. Jessie Hobson, who makes her home with them, was also in St. Louis and did not know of the kind acts of her neighbors. Pictures of the crew at work were taken by King's Studio of this city as were several snapshots taken by members of the group who were present.

University Women Make Survey As Aid To Education

The local branch of the American Association of University women has received a report released from national headquarters embodying suggestions as to the improvement of college education for women. A number of members of the Jacksonville branch were among the 30,000 women whose answers to a questionnaire form the basis for this report.

Two questions were asked by the national committee on education in a survey made under the direction of Dr. Constance Warren, president emerita of Sarah Lawrence college. "In what ways do you feel that your college education is of value in your life today?" and "In the light of your later experiences what kind of improvements or changes would you suggest?"

The committee reports that less than one per cent of the women answering felt that their college education was of no value. From the remaining answers two general types of suggestions have been formulated.

The first is that college education should be more closely related to life, not necessarily in a vocational sense, but for understanding the world, and increasing enjoyment and ability to communicate with and understand others.

Second, that college education should be broad and flexible to stimulate the maximum development of

Routt Rockets Play For Perfect Six-Man Grid Year Tonight

Jerseyville Eleven Out Front In Valley Race; Carrollton 2nd

By Bill Chipman
Jerseyville—Jerseyville's Panther eleven all but sailed the 1949 Illinois Valley football championship away with last week's brilliant 33-12 victory over Glenn Smith's Pittsfield defending champions.

Once again, Coach Halt's speedy, hard-running ball-carriers staged a scoring show. Dale Bridgewater raced for touchdowns on runs of 100 and 75 yards. Jim Thurston broke away for a 32 yard TD and gained with consistency all night. Big Jim Warford, block-busting fullback, is being hailed as the most outstanding line-plunger and defensive line-backer that Jersey fans have applauded in many moons.

Carrollton, in second place, is the only tough hurdle remaining in the Panther's road to the Ivy crown, and they must first get by Pittsfield and Greenfield on successive weeks while the leaders meet Roodhouse and Pleasant Hill.

Jerseyville At Roodhouse
A double feature is in store for Valley fans this week, but unfortunately both will be played Friday night. Jerseyville invades Roodhouse in a game that is bound to produce a lot of good sound football. The Halt-coached crew can clinch a good share of the title with a win while a defeat for the Railroaders would destroy any mathematical chance for a portion of the final lead, which Mason Campbell's boys have won so often.

Roodhouse bumped into a key-up Carrollton team that was going all-out before a large homecoming crowd last week and was set back considerably in the Ivy race with a decisive defeat.

The Carrollton-Pittsfield scrap looks like a toss-up. The Hawks have more power and size than the Saukees, but the latter eleven is a sharp tackling and a smooth ball-handling outfit. Both have good passing attacks. Much of Carrollton's scoring power is between tackle and end, but this is where Pittsfield is strongest in the line, too. Carrollton has the added incentive of a championship at stake which should make for some hard football.

Pleasant Hill Wins
Friday afternoon, Pleasant Hill entertained White Hall. The Hill-toppers came through with their first win of the season last week and rate a slight favorite over the visiting Maroons.

Greenfield entertains winless Winchester on Friday night. Dean Cochran will be out to boost his scoring output in this one since he will find tough sledding in the finale against Carrollton the following week. Don Luketich's Tigers are tied for third place, having lost to Jerseyville and Roodhouse and are given a big edge over Winchester.

The total points scored by both teams in the Basketball Association of America rose from 135.53 in 1946-47 to 160.02 per game last season.

PANTHER SPEEDSTER

Dale Bridgewater, Jerseyville half-back, is one of the main reasons why his club is currently top team in the Illinois Valley high school football conference. The 180-pound senior griddler dashed 100 and 75 yard touchdowns runs against Pittsfield in an important Valley encounter last week. He led a quarter of fast backs to a 33-12 league win over the Pike county defending champs. The fleet ball-carrier runs the 220 yard dash for coach E. W. Halt's track team.

Joe Louis Insists He Is Not Trying To Make Comeback

Boston, Nov. 2.—(P)—Joe Louis insisted again today he had no intentions of a comeback but—
When pressed with the suggestion "many people think you're planning a series of exhibitions just to get in shape for a return to the ring," the retired heavyweight king replied with a shrug:
"Well, I s'pose nothin' is impossible."
That response came after he had told a group of sportswriters and broadcasters he "couldn't even be drafted back" to the ring for a title match.
Louis will begin a series of ten 10-round exhibitions here Nov. 14 at Boston Garden against Johnny Shkor.

Sammy Snead's 68 Gives Him Lead In Golf Tourney

Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 2.—(P)—Sam Snead, the slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., unloaded a hot 33-35—68 today to grab the first round lead in the North and South open golf tournament by one stroke.

The PGA champion and leading money winner of the year had most of the gallery at his heels as he toured the 6,952-yard par 72 Pinehurst Country Club course in four-under par fashion.

His performance left him one stroke ahead of Ted Kroll, Philmont, Pa., and Johnny Buila, Pittsburgh, who is playing out of the southern pines Mid Pines club.

Three pros shared fourth place at 70. They were Gene Dahlbender, former Atlanta amateur star, now a pro out of Mamaroneck, N. Y.; Walter Romans, Baltimore, and Pete Cooper, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Five others broke par with a stroke with 71's. They included Cary Middlecoff, national open champion from Memphis, Tenn., now playing out of Ormond Beach, Fla.; Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., PGA runner-up to Snead; former national amateur king Skee Riegel of Tulsa, Okla., and veterans Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N. Y., and Denny Shute of Akron, Ohio.

Michigan State Is Confident Of Win Over Irish

East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—(P)—Michigan State, preparing for a football meeting with mighty Notre Dame Saturday, is the cockiest, most confident underdog you ever did see.

The Spartans from East Lansing regard this game as a date with destiny. During the past month the college has been whipping itself into a froth of excitement, undismayed by the two-touchdown odds against the local talent.
The former agricultural school is buoyed up by its recent acceptance into the Western conference. The Spartans feel it's only due recognition that they were voted into 10th spot in the national ranking in the most recent Associated Press football poll.

Tickets for the slightly more than 50,000 capacity stadium were sold out 10 days after they went on sale last June. Currently, a couple of good seats fetch up to $75 a pair on the local black market.

Undergraduates stood in line all night earlier this week to get first crack at the choicer student tickets. A group of single students are in hot water with the administration for claiming wives to obtain extra tickets.

Football Briefs

Illini Check Signals
Champaign, Ill., Nov. 2.—(P)—For the third straight day the University of Illinois football squad spent the entire practice session in signal drills and forward pass polishing.
Coach Ray Eliot said that center Bill Vohaska and tackle Al Tate will see only limited action against Indiana Saturday. Both have been hampered by injuries.

Irish Sharpen Defense
South Bend, Ind., Nov. 2.—(P)—Coach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame today began to sharpen defense against a running game as the Irish pointed for Saturday's contest with Michigan State at East Lansing. Gerry Groom, center; Billy Barrett, left halfback; and Guard John Helwig were released from the University infirmary where they had been recuperating from influenza.

Wildcats Play Freshman
Evanston, Ill., Nov. 2.—(P)—A Northwestern University freshman team ran Wisconsin plays today against a Wildcat varsity unit in preparation for the Badgers' invasion Saturday.

Coach Bob Voigts also had an offense unit working on blocking and running through a snappy signal drill.

Voigts said the Wildcats were in pretty good physical shape for the Wisconsin test.

Joek Collins, National Basketball Association referee, also is a scout for the Philadelphia Phillies and discovered Del Ennis, the fine young outfielder.

Plan All-Star Grid Balloting

By the Journal-Courier Sports Editor

Football fans of five towns will be recruited to select the first Journal-Courier All-Star six-man football team within the next 10 days.

Sponsored solely by the sports department of this newspaper, the All-Star selections will cap a very successful inaugural season in the 2-C six-man grid conference. Five small schools have actively supported their abbreviated football teams in this, their first year of competition, and now those fans will be given a chance to name their favorites to an exclusive All-Star team.

Routt of Jacksonville, Franklin, Meredosia, Chandierville and Arenzville high schools boast six-man football teams which comprise the 2-C (which stands for two county, Morgan and Cass) conference.

Franklin plays at Routt and Meredosia at Chandierville this evening to wind-up league play.

Teams Have Played Six Games
When tonight's game is over, fans will have had the opportunity to see their favorites perform in six games this year. Though this was the initial year of football for every boy in the conference, some outstanding talent has been revealed and the Journal-Courier feels that such ability should not be overlooked while the larger schools are picking their All-Star eleven man teams.

Here's how the voting will proceed. The first ballot will appear on these sports pages Saturday morning, Nov. 5, and follow each morning and evening for five consecutive days up to Thursday, Nov. 10.

Tabulations on the players and number of votes received for each, will be published daily in order that fans of each town may follow their stars progress.

No ballots will be accepted which are postmarked later than midnight Thursday, Nov. 10. Final standings will be computed over Friday and Saturday and the All-Star team will be announced in Sunday morning's Journal and Monday afternoon's Courier.

One Vote For Each Position
Each ballot will contain space for six selections and no more. Besides the boy's name, his school and position must be submitted. Blanks will be provided for two ends, a center, quarterback and two halfbacks. Be sure that you vote for a griddler in the position that he has been playing all season.

Coaches will be consulted to make certain that a center is not being voted in as a quarterback or vice-versa.

The six players with the highest number of votes in their respective positions will make up the first team. Those players ranking second in the voting will comprise the second team. Prizes will be awarded to both teams by the Journal-Courier.

Fans may cast as many ballots as they wish. Names of voters need not accompany their selections, though signatures will be welcomed. Fans are urged to be as fair as possible in their voting. If Joe Doaks scored four touchdowns and whipped the home team, don't withhold a vote from him because he was good. Sensible, honest selections are necessary because the fans' vote will be tabulated accurately and the results will hinge entirely on their choice.

Conference Coaches
Coaches of the 2-C conference entries will be contacted from time to time as the balloting proceeds to assemble accurate data on the leaders.

Conference coaches are Howard Savole, Meredosia; Roy Sarff, Chandierville; Verdie Altizer, Arenzville; Joe Treat, Franklin and Paul Strout, Routt.

About the prizes. Besides the honor and recognition that accompany his selection to the first six-man conference All-Star team, the winning griddler will be presented an inscribed gold football, if he is placed on the first team, or a silver ball if he rates a second team berth. Players who rate high in the voting but not high enough to place on the first two teams will receive honorable mention.

The first ballot will be published on Saturday morning's Journal. Come on, you fans! Let's get the ball rolling early and pick the best small school football team possible.

Stroud-Coached Sextet Pits 5-0 Mark Against Red-Hot Franklin Club

By Bob Merris

"The unsung hero" is a term that might be applied to assistant Routt football coach Dick Johnson. On the eve of the Rockets' grid finale we finally come to our senses and realize that Johnson had a lot to do with the east-siders' very successful season. A practice teacher, he has assisted head coach Paul Stroud since last September and his work has been instrumental in ringing up five straight wins. A local boy, Dick played high school football at JHS, served a hitch in the Navy during the war and is now finishing up his school days, a senior at Illinois College.

Dick's prescription for success, "run, run, run, and when you finish that, run some more." Built like a race-horse, Johnson led the Rocket athletes 'round and 'round the practice gridiron in the early weeks of training and his work is showing results now, as the gold-clad boys race up and down the turf during a game, hardly breathing hard at a break.

Al Miller takes his Illinois College gridders to Indiana Saturday where they'll tangle with a tough Wabash College outfit that has won its last four starts. With yards and yards of tape still required to hold his limping athletes together, Al is expecting a rough time with the host Hoosiers.

Ray Watts, flashy freshman halfback, sustained a leg injury during a practice scrimmage Tuesday night. The twisted knee, though a mild hurt, made the injury list unanimous at the Hill-top school. Not a single Blueboys player has been considered a starter this season. Yet, the Hilltop record isn't something to hide beneath a tale of woe. Four wins, one tie and one defeat isn't considered bad in any league.

With two games remaining on his football chart, the last against Augustana here a week from Saturday, Miller's thoughts have turned partially to basketball. He has issued the first call for cage talent to meet on Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Michigan Boxing Commission Asks To Query Gavilan
Detroit, Nov. 2.—(P)—The Michigan Boxing Commission today asked Kid Gavilan to come here Saturday and answer questions about the Oct. 21 fight he lost by a split decision to Detroit's Lester Felton.

Commission Chairman Floyd Stevens said in a telegram to Gavilan's New York headquarters, "Inasmuch as the xxx decision xxx has been criticized and charges of gambling and fixing have been blamed for this decision, it is imperative that you xxx appear."

In New York, Fernando Balido, a co-manager of Gavilan, said he would confer tonight with Angelo Lopez, also a co-manager, to discuss the situation. He declined to say anything further.

Gavilan recently was rated by the NBA as logical contender for Ray Robinson's welterweight title. Stevens backed up his "invitation" to Gavilan by asking New York Boxing Commissioner Eddie Eagan to suspend Gavilan if he does not attend the Michigan inquiry.

COOK BUDGET IS LARGEST
Chicago, Nov. 2.—(P)—The biggest budget in the history of Cook county (Chicago) was submitted to supervisors today for approval. The estimated 1950 corporate budget is $36,353,227, which is more than $2,000,000 more than the record 1949 appropriation of $34,214,171.

Lin Bend of the St. Paul Saints of the U.S. Hockey League is a cousin of Bryan Hextall, one of the New York Rangers' former great stars.

John Burnett of the Cleveland Indians collected nine hits in 11 times at bat in a 1932 game—the major league record.

MIGHTY MITE

When 145 pound Sonny Loneragan carries the mail for the undefeated Routt Rockets he proves time and again the aged axiom that "dynamite comes in small packages." The diminutive Rocket halfback has blasted through opposing six-man lines for 12 touchdowns in five games this season. A hard runner, the elusive little backfield ace has sparked his team to a perfect record up to now. He will be fighting for Coach Paul Stroud and Routt fans tonight, when the gold-clad gridders take the field against Franklin in the final game of the year.

Mount Carroll Entry Wins In US Horse Show In NY

New York, Nov. 2.—(P)—Entries of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Campbell, Mount Carroll, Ill., won honors in three events of the 1949 national horse show at Madison Square Garden today.

The Campbells' Star Spangled banner, Killdeer Banter, and Esquire placed third in collection of three harness horses (over 14.2) event.

Star Spangled Banner won third in the single harness horse competition (with rumble seat to be shown by Lady).

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT
Chicago, Nov. 2.—(P)—Livestock trading was a highly irregular affair today. Prime beef steers hit an all-time record high of $41.75 at the same time the day's peak on hogs eased 10 cents to $17. The lowest level since removal of price controls, Oct. 15, 1946. At that time the ceiling price was $16.25 a hundred pounds.

The hog market generally was steady to weak. Most butchers sold from $16.75 to $16.90 while some were $14.50 to $16.25, a few reaching $16.50.

Cattle were mixed in trends, ranging from 25 cents higher to $1 lower. Good and choice steers and yearlings sold from $27 to $37.50 and 15.75-16.50; common and medium cows 14.00-15.25; canners and cutters $20 to $29, medium and good bulls $18.50 to $20, and medium to choice vealers $25 to $29.50, a few reaching $30.

Choice native lambs topped at $24.25 in a steady to 25 cents higher market, and choice clipped westerns made $24. Most good and choice lambs were $23 to $24.25, while yearlings were absent and ewes were strong at $11 downward.

Included in the day's estimated saleable receipts were 10,000 hogs, 8,500 cattle, 400 calves, and 2,000 sheep.

Dick Wakefield of the Detroit Tigers was the last major league rookie to get 200 hits in his first season—he got them in 1943.

The Franklin Flashes come to town tonight in an effort to flag down a blazing Routt Rocket six-man football team that has swept to five-straight conference gridiron victories this season. Franklin gets the last chance to halt the red-hot Stroudmen since tonight will mark the final meeting of the year for six-man teams. Kick-off time is set for 8 p.m. on the JHS turf.

Routt has already clinched the new 2-C conference crown by virtue of its perfect record. Meredosia and Franklin sextets are tied for second with a 3-2 standing. Arenzville, who wound up the season last week, and Chandierville, who entertained Dosh tonight, are mired at the bottom. Chandierville has a chance to climb higher in the standings, if they can whip the Indians this evening.

Routt Has Beaten Franklin
The Rockets, led by captain and quarterback A. J. Spreen and sparked by the running of halfback "Sonny" Loneragan clipped Franklin 33-19 in a previous conference tangle. That win was annexed at Franklin and highlighted a two-day Flash homecoming celebration.

Therefore, the Franklin club, which has been going great guns of late, has two reasons for wanting to whip the Routt gang. First, a victory over the heretofore unbeaten Rockets would rate Franklin the six-man team of the year, even though they would rank second to Routt in conference standings. Secondly, revenge would be sweet after Stroud's athletes ruined the Franklin homecoming with that grid win a month ago.

Joe Treat, Franklin mentor, could not be contacted last night. However, Paul Rust, assistant coach, announced the starting Franklin lineup. Only question mark is at the flanks. Bill Rawlings, a big, fast backfield ace, is the chief Franklin offensive threat.

Rockets Are Confident
Paul Stroud voiced confidence in his Routt gang yesterday evening. He said that he is standing by the same starting lineup that has carried him through a perfect season. Only alteration will be at one half-back post where "Hinky" Henry will start if Routt kicks off, or Jack Murphy if the Rockets receive.

Going into tonight's final games, here is how the 2-C conference standings look as the league winds up a highly successful first year:

Team	W	L
Routt	5	0
Franklin	3	2
Meredosia	3	2
Chandierville	1	4
Arenzville	1	5

BOWLING FOR EVERYBODY

Technical Experts: NED DAY and MILTON RAYMER, in cooperation with the National Bowling Council

Bowling is America's most popular indoor sport (1) with 20 million people in all parts of the country bowling regularly for good exercise in a healthful atmosphere....for good competition and good fun with good friends. Learning the game from "scratch" or improving your present game is easy. There are only a few fundamentals you need to know well. Regardless of your age or sex (2) the fundamentals to be learned are the same. You should know about equipment, the fundamentals of delivering the ball, aiming techniques and scoring. All of these will be covered in this series.

Each bowling lane (3) consists of a 16-foot approach, up to the foul line, then a 60-foot lane, 41 to 42 inches wide, from the foul line to the first pin. The area where the pins are set is called the "pin deck." Bowling pins (4) are made to precise weight and measurements. Ten pins are set in a triangular arrangement, from left to right, 7, 8, 9 and 10. In the next installment of the series we will discuss equipment used in bowling.

(For a complete set of 3 hard books on bowling fundamentals, send 25 cents to "BOWLING", care of this newspaper.)

The CAMEO
By Virginia Teale

THE STORY: Martin Falter, a resident of the Dolores art colony, has somehow come into possession of a valuable carnelian cameo. He visits a local collector, Hagar Blair, a gift shop proprietor, and offers it for $12,000. Hagar cannot pay this, but Stephanie Smith, Hagar's assistant, is very anxious that Hagar obtain it. Later Falter calls on Arnold Pfeiffer, a weaver, and shows him the cameo.

ARNOLD PFEIFFER whistled. He turned the brooch over, fingering it gently. "What do you want me to do with it?" he asked Martin Falter.

"I want you to take it to a prospective buyer I have in San Francisco. Ask him for $12,000, but, if you have to, take ten. I'll get a power of attorney notarized tonight and bring it over. Now, let's see, I have his card somewhere."

Arnold, his lips pursed worriedly, watched Martin's search through his pockets. He gave a little cough:

"You know, Marty, you're asking me to take a lot of responsibility. I wish you'd take it up yourself."

"I can't leave town right now. And, anyway, I'd rather not deal with this man in person."

"Why not?"

"Oh, stop with the questions. Arnold, you fuss like an old woman. Now, here," he extended a card, "here's the man's name, address and phone number. I know I can depend on you to get me the best possible price."

Arnold frowned, evading Martin's eyes. He spoke hesitantly:

"Where—where did you get this pin, Marty?"

"Where d'you think I got it? I suppose you think I stole it? It's mine and I'm going to sell it. I hate people who try to pry."

Arnold compressed his mouth into a firm line.

"I'm not going to take it up to San Francisco. I just don't like the idea, that's all!"

Martin leaned back lazily. "That's tough, because you're going to. You'll do anything I ask. I think—this time or any other time."

Arnold stared at him: "What did you say, Martin?"

"You heard me. You owe me something of a debt. Arnold. Fortunately for your little bank balance, I've decided not to ask payment in money."

"I owe you a debt?" Arnold laughed nervously. "I'd say that statement was slightly cart-before-the-horse."

"WE'RE talking at cross-purposes," Martin tilted his chair and teetered back and forth. The coldness of his eyes belied his indolent attitude and drawing voice: "I feel that I've proved myself quite a friend of yours, quite a good friend, Arnold, by keeping certain things to myself."

Arnold's body went rigid. "Go on," he said.

"I will. Now the way I see it—you like it here in Dolores. You like the reputation you've built for yourself out West as a master weaver. You like the money it brings in. You like the pilgrimages to your door by artists and sightseers. You'd hate to give it up and move away and begin again, wouldn't you?"

Arnold's face was white.

Martin laughed. "Oh, don't look so petrified. It all boils down to this—you take the cameo to San Francisco for me, and we'll forget all about Baltimore."

Color shot back into Arnold's face, turning it a deep, purple-red. He jumped to his feet and sprang at Martin, raining futile blows on the bigger man's arms and chest. Martin struggled out of his chair, grabbed Arnold's shoulders and held him at arm's length:

"Let me in, Arnold!" she rattled the knob rudely. "Hurry up!"

"Now, now, Arnold," he panted. "Temper, temper!"

Arnold kicked at him, sobbing, then turned and sank into a chair and buried his face in his hands.

"You're despicable, Martin Falter!" he spat.

Martin shrugged. "But interesting," he amended. "At least no one could call me a milkop. Now, if you're over the little tantrum, I'll give you the cameo. Put it away somewhere while I go out and see about getting that power of attorney. I probably won't get back here until around 9 or 10 this evening." He paused in the doorway. "Try a little lavender salts, Arnold, they'll give your vapors no end of a lift." He laughed and was gone.

Arnold, his head buzzing, pushed back his chair and walked to the windows.

HIS thoughts centered on Martin, reviewing their friendship from its beginning on Dolores's sun-baked beach one summer afternoon about two years ago.

Martin had been one of his first acquaintances. He had met him informally on the beach only because Martin's cigarette lighter hadn't worked. Arnold had given him a match. They had gotten on well, and presently, Arnold had told Martin all about his work—his art weaving. Arnold had been careful not to discuss his past life, careful not to mention anything that might lead to questions about Baltimore.

All of that Martin had somehow stumbled upon by himself. Arnold cringed as he stood at the window. Baltimore! That dreadful scandal.

He turned from the window and paced the room. He stopped once and fitted a cigarette into his holder. What Martin Falter had just said to him amounted to blackmail! Blackmail from a man he'd thought of as a friend!

Arnold suddenly despised himself for a fool. A naive fool, for confiding in Martin, making an intimate of him, occasionally lending him money. And asking nothing, nothing whatsoever in return.

They had spent a good deal of time together until Martin had got mixed up with that O'Neill woman.

Blowsy, obvious creature! Nell O'Neill had money, of course, and that would appeal to Marty. And he didn't even care that Nell's purse was filled by Tom, her good-natured husband.
